

OAKRIDGE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
HYDERABAD, BACHUPALLY
A NORD ANGLIA EDUCATION SCHOOL

BACKGROUND GUIDE

US SENATE

Agenda: Consideration and Passage of H.R.
5334 — The Lindsey O. Graham Sanctioning
Russia and Iran Act of 2026

SESSION PROCEDURE & TENTATIVE LIST OF BUSINESS

Basic Information

- Duration of the Session: 3 Days
- Recreation Period: 28th July, 2026 - 7th August, 2026
- Simulation Dates: 3 Days
- Institution: United States Senate, 119th Congress, 2nd Session
- Nature of Business: Legislative Business
- Simulation: Historical Recreation of the United States Senate
- Freeze Date: 28th July, 2026, 5:00 PM Eastern Time
- Legislative Vehicle: H.R. 5334
- Calendar: Calendar No. 454
- Final Historical Event Recreated: Senate passage of H.R. 5334 on 7th August, 2026

AGENDA

Consideration and Passage of H.R. 5334 — The Lindsey O. Graham

Sanctioning Russia and Iran Act of 2026

The Senate shall recreate the legislative journey of H.R. 5334 from the procedural position existing at 5:00 PM Eastern Time on 28th July, 2026, through the Senate's subsequent consideration and final passage of the legislation on 7th August, 2026.

The three-day simulation shall compress the actual period between these dates into a continuous Senate proceeding while preserving the relevant sequence of Senate procedure, including:

- Consideration of the Motion to Proceed;
- Cloture;
- Post-cloture consideration;
- Motion to Proceed;
- Consideration of the legislation;
- Debate;
- Amendments;
- Procedural motions;
- Further consideration;
- Final passage.

The purpose of the recreation is to reproduce the actual legislative and procedural journey of the legislation rather than merely conduct a generic debate on the bill.

NOTE : The bracketed UN/MUN Equivalent terminology is provided solely as an orientation aid. The simulation shall be governed exclusively by United States Senate procedure.

TENTATIVE LIST OF BUSINESS

DAY 1

HISTORICAL PERIOD RECREATED: 28th JULY, 2026

1. Convening of the Senate (Opening of Session / Establishment of Quorum)

The Presiding Officer shall call the Senate to order.

The opening proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with established Senate procedure, including the Prayer, Pledge of Allegiance, Journal, and other applicable opening business. A quorum consists of a majority of Senators duly chosen and sworn.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Opening of Session / Roll Call / Establishment of Quorum.

2. Transaction of Morning Business (General Business / General Statements)

Morning Business shall be conducted in accordance with the Standing Rules of the Senate and any applicable order governing the day's proceedings.

Senators may conduct matters properly before the Senate during Morning Business.

Where Senators are permitted to speak, they shall obtain recognition from the Presiding Officer. Morning Business shall not operate as a MUN General Speakers List.

UN/MUN Equivalent: General Business / General Statements.

3. Recognition of the Majority and Minority Leaders (Opening Political Statements)

The Majority Leader and Minority Leader may be recognized by the Presiding Officer in accordance with Senate practice.

Leader remarks may address:

- The legislative schedule;
- H.R. 5334;
- The pending procedural question;
- The positions of the Majority and Minority;
- Legislative strategy;
- The proposed sanctions framework.

This shall not constitute a separate MUN-style opening-speaker round.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Opening Statements / Political Statements.(GSL)

4. Motion to Proceed to H.R. 5334 (Motion to Consider the Agenda)

The Senate shall consider the Motion to Proceed to H.R. 5334 .

The Motion to Proceed is the procedural mechanism by which the Senate determines whether to take up the measure for consideration.

The motion shall be considered in accordance with Senate Rules and precedents.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Motion to Consider the Agenda / Motion to Open Consideration.

5. Consideration of the Motion to Proceed (Procedural Debate)

Senators may seek recognition and debate the Motion to Proceed.

Debate may concern:

- Whether the Senate should proceed to H.R. 5334;
- The purpose of the legislation;
- Russia sanctions;
- Iran sanctions;
- Russian energy;
- Secondary sanctions;
- Tariff authority;
- Congressional oversight;
- Presidential authority;
- U.S. foreign policy.

Senators shall obtain recognition before speaking.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Moderated Caucus General Debate.

6. Cloture on the Motion to Proceed (Closure of Debate)

The Senate shall consider the previously filed cloture motion on the Motion to Proceed to H.R. 5334.

Under Rule XXII, a cloture motion requires the signatures of 16 Senators.

For ordinary legislation, cloture requires three-fifths of Senators duly chosen and sworn. For a 100-member Senate:

60 votes are required.

The cloture question shall be determined by a ye-a-and-nay vote.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Closure of Debate / Closure Motion.

7. Vote on Cloture (Roll-Call Vote)

The Clerk shall call the names of Senators.

Each Senator shall respond:

“Aye.”

or

“Nay.”

The Clerk shall record the vote.

The Presiding Officer shall announce the result.

Historical Recreation Note: The actual Senate invoked cloture on the Motion to Proceed on 28th July by 86-12.

This result shall be recreated as part of the historical sequence.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Roll-Call Vote / Division.

8. Adjournment / Continuation of Legislative Business (Suspension of Session)

Following completion of the July 28 proceedings, the simulation shall transition to the next historical legislative day.

The Secretariat may compress the overnight interval and subsequent Senate recesses while maintaining the chronological order of proceedings.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Suspension / Adjournment.

DAY 2

HISTORICAL PERIOD RECREATED: 29th JULY - 6th AUGUST, 2026

9. Reconvening of the Senate (Resumption of Session)

The Senate shall reconvene and resume consideration of the pending legislative business. The recreation shall proceed from the procedural position established following invocation of cloture on the Motion to Proceed.

10. Post-Cloture Consideration of the Motion to Proceed (Time-Limited Debate)

Following invocation of cloture, consideration shall proceed under Rule XXII.

The post-cloture period shall be represented through compressed simulation time.

The Senate shall retain the substantive procedural limitations applicable following cloture.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Time-Limited Debate / Closure-Restricted Debate.

11. Motion to Proceed to H.R. 5334 — Final Disposition (Motion to Consider the Agenda)

Upon completion of the applicable post-cloture procedure, the Senate shall vote on the Motion to Proceed to H.R. 5334.

The question shall be whether the Senate shall proceed to consideration of the legislation. Historical Recreation Note: The actual Senate agreed to the Motion to Proceed on 29th July, 2026, by a vote of 84-12.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Motion to Consider the Agenda / Adoption of Agenda.

12. Consideration of H.R. 5334 (Substantive Debate)

Upon agreeing to proceed to the measure, H.R. 5334 becomes the pending legislative business before the Senate.

Senators may debate the legislation.

The floor shall operate through recognition by the Presiding Officer.

There shall be:

- No MUN General Speakers List;
- No Moderated Caucus;
- No Unmoderated Caucus;
- No Points of Information;
- No MUN-style speaking queue.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Substantive Debate

13. General Debate on H.R. 5334

Senators may debate the legislation as a whole.

Debate may address:

Russia

- Sanctions against Russian officials;
- Sanctions against oligarchs;
- Russian financial institutions;
- Russian Shadow Fleet;
- Russian energy revenues;
- Sanctions evasion;
- Russia's war against Ukraine.

Iran

- Iran's energy sector;
- Iran's weapons sector;
- Sanctions enforcement;
- Financial support for Iran.

Secondary Sanctions

- Purchasers of Russian energy;
- Foreign persons and entities;

- Sanctions-evasion networks;
- Countries facilitating Russian energy transactions.

Tariffs

- Presidential tariff authority;
- Tariffs on major purchasers of Russian oil and gas;
- Economic consequences;
- Effects on U.S. consumers and businesses;
- International trade implications.

Congressional-Executive Relations

- Congressional authority;
- Presidential discretion;
- Sanctions waivers;
- Oversight mechanisms;
- Separation of powers.

The legislation's publicly announced framework included primary and secondary sanctions against Russia and actors supporting its war effort, targeted tariff authority concerning major purchasers of Russian energy, and measures concerning Iran's energy and weapons sectors.

UN/MUN Equivalent: General Speakers List / Substantive Debate.

14. Amendments (Amendment Procedure)

Senators may offer amendments where procedurally permissible.

Amendments shall be considered according to Senate Rules, precedents, and applicable parliamentary rulings.

Potential areas of amendment may include:

- Limits on presidential tariff authority;
- Congressional oversight;
- Sanctions implementation;
- Sanctions waivers;
- Reporting requirements;
- Economic safeguards;
- Russia-related sanctions;
- Iran-related sanctions.

The Parliamentarian shall advise the Presiding Officer regarding procedural questions concerning amendments.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Amendment Procedure.

15. Extended Debate / Filibuster (Extended Debate / Procedural Delay)

Senators may employ extended debate in accordance with Senate procedure.

The purpose of the recreation is to reproduce the Senate's actual legislative environment. No artificial 60-second or 90-second speech limit shall apply unless established by an applicable Senate agreement.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Extended Debate / Procedural Delay.

Actual Senate Terminology: Filibuster.

16. Unanimous Consent (Consensus / Procedural Agreement)

Senators may seek unanimous consent for procedural or legislative matters where permitted. A Senator may state:

“Mr. President, I ask for unanimous consent that...”

The Presiding Officer shall ask:

“Is there an objection?”

If there is no objection:

“Without objection, so ordered.”

If any Senator objects, unanimous consent shall not be granted.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Consensus / Procedural Agreement.

17. Points of Order and Appeals (Point of Order / Appeal)

A Senator may raise a point of order.

The Presiding Officer shall rule on the question according to Senate Rules and precedents. Where permitted, the ruling may be appealed to the Senate.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Point of Order / Appeal of the Chair.

18. Procedural Motions (Procedural Motions)

Senators may employ motions recognized under Senate procedure, including where applicable:

- Adjourn;
- Adjourn to a day certain;
- Recess;
- Lay on the table;
- Postpone;
- Commit;
- Amend;
- Other motions recognized under the Senate Rules.

MUN-specific motions shall not be permitted.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Procedural Motions.

19. Continued Legislative Consideration (Continuation of Substantive Debate)

The Senate shall continue consideration of H.R. 5334.

The recreation shall compress the intervening legislative days between 29th July and 7th August while preserving the substantive sequence of the Senate's consideration.

Senators may:

- Debate;
- Offer permissible amendments;
- Raise points of order;
- Seek unanimous consent;
- Engage in negotiations;
- Employ procedural strategies;
- Seek recognition;
- Participate in votes ordered by the Senate.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Continuation of General Debate / Substantive Debate.

DAY 3

HISTORICAL PERIOD RECREATED: 7th AUGUST, 2026

20. Final Consideration of H.R. 5334 (Final Debate)

The Senate shall proceed toward final disposition of H.R. 5334.

Any remaining permissible debate, amendments, procedural questions, and motions shall be disposed of in accordance with Senate procedure.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Final Debate / Final Consideration.

21. Final Passage of H.R. 5334 (Final Roll-Call Vote)

The Presiding Officer shall put the final question before the Senate:

“The question is on the passage of H.R. 5334.”

The Senate shall proceed to a ye-a-and-nay vote.

The Clerk shall call the names of Senators.

Each Senator shall respond:

“Aye.”

or

“Nay.”

The Clerk shall record the votes.

The Presiding Officer shall announce the result.

UN/MUN Equivalent: Final Roll-Call Vote / Final Adoption.

22. Passage of the Lindsey O. Graham Sanctioning Russia and Iran Act of 2026

(Adoption of Legislation)

Upon receiving the required number of votes, H.R. 5334 shall be declared passed by the Senate. Historical Recreation Note: The actual Senate passed the Lindsey O. Graham Sanctioning Russia and Iran Act of 2026 on 7th August, 2026, by a vote of 86-11.

The historical final vote shall therefore constitute the conclusion of the three-day recreation. UN/MUN Equivalent: Adoption / Passage of the Draft Legislation.

23. Concluding Proceedings (Closing of Session)

Following passage of H.R. 5334, the Presiding Officer shall announce the conclusion of the Senate's consideration of the legislation.

The Clerk/Secretariat shall record:

- Motions;
- Amendments;
- Procedural actions;
- Roll-call votes;
- Final disposition.

The recreation shall conclude upon completion of the final Senate action represented by the simulation. UN/MUN Equivalent: Closing of Session.